JANELLE McDONALD

The R.C. Rothman UCLA Head Gymnastics Coach
3rd Season
Arizona State '11

Janelle McDonald was named the new head coach of the UCLA Gymnastics team on May 9, 2022 and within one season elevated the Bruins back into national prominence with a fifth-place NCAA finish and Pac-12 regular season co-championship.

In her first season as a head coach, McDonald was named the 2023 Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WCGA) West Region Coach of the Year, and she and her coaching staff were tabbed by College Gym News as the Coaching Staff of the Year. McDonald led UCLA to its first NCAA Championships appearance since 2019 and a final national ranking of fifth. The Bruins also won a Pac-12 regular season co-championship and finished the regular season ranked No. 4 nationally, 10 spots higher than they ranked the previous year. UCLA improved its NQS by nearly nine-tenths of a point, going from 197.090 in 2022 to 197.950 in 2023, and their season average of 197.774 was 0.895 higher than a year ago, marking the greatest improvement by any Power 5 team. McDonald's Bruins scored 197 or higher in all but one meet this season (missing by just one-tenth in that meet) and had three scores of 198 or higher, including a high of 198.275. UCLA went 24-for-24 in 12 of 14 meets, the most by any team in school history.

McDonald coached Jordan Chiles to NCAA and Pac-12 titles on uneven bars and floor exercise in 2023 and had five Bruins earn a total of 11 postseason All-America honors. As the team's primary uneven bars coach, McDonald guided her bars squad to a No. 5 national ranking, a 14-spot improvement from the previous year. The Bruins averaged 49.487 on the event, with eight scores of 49.500 or higher, including a high of 49.725 that ranks as the No. 3 score in school history.

In 2024, McDonald led UCLA to a close second-place finish at the Pac-12 Championships, and she coached three Bruins to All-America honors. She also coached Emma Malabuyo as she qualified for the Paris Olympics after a bronze-medal all-around finish at the 2024 Asian Games.

Prior to joining the Bruins, McDonald helped coach the University of California to unprecedented success during her four seasons (2019-22), as the Golden Bears won their first-ever Pac-12 regular season title in 2022 and earned a seventh-place NCAA finish in 2021, which matched their highest-ever finish. Serving as the team's uneven bars head coach, McDonald coached Maya Bordas to California's first-ever NCAA individual championship in 2021, while the uneven bars squad finished the regular season ranked No. 1 in the nation and tied a NCAA record with a team score of 49.825. In 2022, all six uneven bars performers ranked in the Top 15 in the region, with three earning All-Pac-12 honors. The Top 7 uneven bars scores in school history have come under McDonald's watch. During her tenure, California gymnasts earned a total of 17 All-America honors, including six on uneven bars. McDonald was honored in 2020 and 2021 as the WCGA Regional Assistant Coach of the Year and was part of the 2021 College Gym News Coaching Staff of the Year.

McDonald, who began her coaching career in 1999 while in high school, has extensive coaching experience at the club level, including a six-year (2012-18) tenure at WOGA, which earned USA Gymnastics Texas Junior Olympic Program of the Year honors in 2015. She coached all four events at the elite, optional and compulsory levels, mentoring USA Championship qualifiers and various athletes who earned full-ride scholarships to NCAA Division I programs.

Prior to WOGA, McDonald was the TOPS team coach at Legacy Elite Gymnastics and also coached Level 3-10 team gymnasts. She also spent eight years coaching at Desert Lights Gymnastics, where she coached all levels of competitive gymnastics, choreographed balance beam and floor exercise routines and was the TOPS Team Director and Compulsory Team Director. McDonald was named the 2005 USAG Arizona Rookie Coach of the Year and the 2006 USAG Arizona Compulsory Coach of the Year, and she was part of the staff that earned 2009-2010 USAG Arizona Coaching Staff of the Year acclaim. Since 2020, McDonald has served as the head coach on vault and uneven bars for Level 7-10 athletes at East Bay Gymnastics, coaching numerous state and regional champions.

"Janelle's passion and love for the sport radiates throughout her," said two-time Olympic medalist and former UCLA All-American and NCAA champion Madison Kocian, whom McDonald helped coach and support at WOGA. "She exudes qualities that will make an incredible head coach, mentor and leader for this program. I'm so excited to cheer her on as she upholds the UCLA Gymnastics legacy."

McDonald graduated from Arizona State University in 2011 with a Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies. While at Arizona State, she interned for the Sun Devil gymnastics program in 2010. She has owned a National Association of Women's Gymnastics Judges (NAWGJ) certification since 2001.

What They're Saying …

"I'm excited to welcome Janelle McDonald into the Bruin family. In addition to being extremely accomplished in the world of coaching, she exudes both confidence and energy. More importantly, Janelle is dedicated to elevating the sport through empowering student-athletes to become the best version of themselves."

- Former UCLA Head Coach and UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame member Valorie Kondos Field

"I've known Janelle for quite some time now. It's been amazing watching her grow as a coach and seeing the way she can add to a college team. Change is always exciting, and so is a new perspective. I can't wait to see where she leads this team."

- Two-time NCAA Champion Katelyn Ohashi (UCLA '19)

"I am beyond proud and excited for Janelle and the UCLA Gymnastics program! I had the honor of working alongside her for many years, and she is one of the best people and coaches I have ever met. UCLA Gymnastics is very lucky to have her. I know she will be able to bring out the best of everyone in the program."

- Cecile Landi, Girls Team Assistant Head Coach, World Champions Centre

BJ DAS

Assistant Coach
6th Season
Washington '06

Professional choreographer and dancer BJ Das begins her sixth season on UCLA's coaching staff and third as a full-time assistant coach after serving as the volunteer assistant coach from 2020-22.

In her first season as full-time assistant in 2023, she was honored by the WCGA as Co-Assistant Coach of the Year in the West Region. Additionally, the UCLA coaching staff was selected College Gym News' Coaching Staff of the Year.

Each year as the Bruins' choreographer, Das has created floor exercise routines that went viral, including two routines from Nia Dennis that each amassed over 11 million views just on Twitter alone. Das choreographed Jordan Chiles' 2023 NCAA and Pac-12 floor exercise championship routine, as well as two routines that won Pac-12 floor titles (Chae Campbell and Pauline Tratz in 2021) and five routines that scored perfect 10s (Gracie Kramer in 2020, Campbell twice in 2022 and once in 2024 and Chiles twice in 2022 and twice in 2023).

UCLA's floor exercise squad ranked first in the nation in 2023 and in 2020. The 2023 Bruins set a school postseason record on floor with a 49.7125 at the NCAA semifinals. In 2020, their team score of 49.8 was the nation's highest event score on any apparatus that season and the No. 4 floor score in UCLA history. The 2024 floor squad posted the No. 5 floor score in school history with a 49.775.

As a professional dancer, Das has performed live with Beyonce, P!nk and Usher and toured with Avril Lavigne. Her music video credits include Beyonce's "Run the World (Girls)", Ariana Grande's "Baby I" and Justin Bieber/Nicki Minaj's "Beauty and a Beat". Das has also performed live at the 2019 Grammy Awards, the 2018 American Music Awards and on the Ellen Show, The Voice and Late Show with James Corden, among others. Additionally, Das has choreographed for TV shows GLOW, Fresh Off the Boat and The Masked Singer, along with the Emmy Awards and Radio Disney Music Awards. She also served as an assistant choreographer for the Gold Over America Tour in 2021 and 2024. Her first Hollywood experience was as a gymnast on the movie Stick It. Das has been signed to Bloc Talent Agency as a dancer and choreographer since 2007.

Das was the volunteer assistant coach and choreographer at the University of Utah in 2019, when the Utes ranked in the Top 5 in the nation on floor exercise.

A 2006 graduate of the University of Washington, Das earned her Bachelor's degree in psychology. She competed on the Husky gymnastics team for two years.

MARK FREEMAN

Assistant Coach
1st Season
California '08

After coaching on the men's gymnastics side for eight years, Mark Freeman begins his first year as an assistant coach for the UCLA women.

Freeman served as an assistant coach for the four-time defending NCAA champion Stanford men's gymnastics team from 2019-24. A four-time West Region Assistant Coach of the Year and a member of five National Coaching Staffs of the Year, Freeman coached two members of USA Gymnastics' 2024 Olympic bronze-medal winning team (Brody Malone and Asher Hong) and one team member (Malone) and two alternates (Akash Modi and Brandon Briones) at the 2020 Olympics. Freeman produced a long list of All-Americans who totaled 76 All-American honors in his five-year tenure at Stanford. Prior to his time at Stanford, he was an assistant coach for the men's team at the University of California from 2017-19. Freeman is the owner of SB Gymnastics and CEO and founder of Freeman Technique, a fitness and movement consultancy.

A member of Great Britain's Senior National Team from 2001-04, Freeman competed at the World Championships in 2002 and 2003. As a Junior National Team member, he became the first-ever British competitors to win a gold medal in a major competition, taking the Junior European title on rings in 2002. Freeman went on to compete for the California Golden Bears from 2004-08, leading his team to three Top 5 NCAA finishes and one MPSF conference title. After earning his degree in Sociology in 2008, he continued his gymnastics journey by performing, touring and creating for Cirque du Soleil for five years.

LACY DAGEN

Assistant Coach
1st Season
Oregon State '20

Dagen comes to UCLA from Arizona State, where she was the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. She helped guide the Sun Devils to the NCAA Regional Final and a No. 16 national finish in 2024. The Sun Devils' beam coach, Dagen helped coach the team to a record-breaking 11 consecutive 49.0+ meets, including a 49.550 score that was its highest since 2007 and ranks as No. 6 all-time at ASU.

Dagen had previous coaching stops at Oregon State in 2023 and UC Davis in 2022. At Oregon State, she helped the Beavers win a share of the Pac-12 regular season title and advance to the NCAA Regional Final, with a No. 12 national finish. The team ended the year with 12-straight scores of 197+, including a program record 198.075. At UC Davis, Dagen helped kick-start a record year for the Aggies, who set program bests that season for overall team score, away team score and team vault total. Dagen has coached two conference gymnasts of the year – Oregon State's Jade Carey and UC Davis' Kyla Kessler.

A native of Pleasanton, Calif., Dagen was a member of the University of Florida team from 2016-17 before transferring to Oregon State from 2018-21. At Oregon State, she earned all-conference honoree on vault and received three of her four career Scholastic All-America honors. Dagen received her bachelor's degree in sociology and innovation management in 2020. She also earned a master's degree in kinesiology from Oregon State in 2022, developing an injury prevention program tailored to NCAA gymnastics that she then implanted into daily practices as a coach.

UCLA placed fourth in the season-opening Mean Girls Super 16, scoring 196.550 to finish behind Alabama (197.125), California (196.850) and Auburn (196.600). The Bruins led at the halfway point after scoring 49.325 on vault and 49.275 on bars but had to count a fall on beam, dropping them to fourth place. UCLA rebounded with a meet-high 49.55 on floor, but it wasn't enough to move up the standings. Three Bruins won events - Chae Campbell with a perfect 9.95 on vault, Selena Harris with a 9.95 on bars, and Emily Lee with a 9.9 on beam. Harris finished tied for second in the all-around with a score of 39.550.

Meet 3 - at Denver Quad (1/21)

Competing in their third consecutive road quad meet, UCLA placed third at Denver, scoring 196.550. No. 1 Oklahoma placed first with a national-best 198.325, No. 10 Denver was second with a 197.100, and Stanford placed fourth with a 196.100. The Bruins used a season-high 49.575 on floor to climb into second place after two events and held onto its position after scoring 49.175 on vault in rotation three. However, the Bruins had struggles with low bar transitions in the final rotation and had to count a fall, dropping UCLA into third place. Emma Malabuyo led the team, recording a career-high 9.9 on bars and season-bests of 9.925 on beam and 9.875 on floor.

Meet 6 - Oregon State (Feb. 9)

UCLA remained unbeaten in Pac-12 play, beating No. 18 Oregon State, 197.425-196.700, with a season-high road score. The Bruins relied on their depth, receiving strong contributions from their subs who competed while All-Americans Chae Campbell and Nya Reed were rested, and a huge performance from Selena Harris, who scored a perfect 10 on vault, 9.95s on bars and beam and a 39.750 in the all-around to win those events. UCLA led from start to finish after posting a season-high 49.45 on uneven bars, led by a career-high 9.925 from Frida Esparza and season-bests of 9.9 from Margzetta Frazier and 9.95 from Harris. Competing with three freshmen and two sophomores on vault, the Bruins maintained the lead by posting a 49.275, aided by Harris' second career perfect 10. UCLA extended its lead on floor after a 49.45 and locked it up with a solid 49.25 on beam.

Meet 7 - Utah (Feb. 19)

UCLA held a 0.425 lead after the first two rotations against Utah but was unable to hold on in the final two rotations, dropping its first Pac-12 Conference meet of the season to the Utes, 197.300-196.975. The Bruins got off to a great start with a season-high 49.525 on vault in rotation one and increased their lead slightly after rotation two's 49.3 on uneven bars. However, the momentum stalled in the third rotation after scoring just 48.875 on beam. The Bruins had an opportunity to reclaim in the lead in the final rotation on floor exercise, but two out-of-bound penalties hurt the comeback bid, and Utah's Maile O'Keefe sealed the Ute win with a 9.975 on beam on their final routine. Selena Harris won the all-around and three events for the second consecutive meet, scoring 39.675 in the all-around and recording her second-straight perfect 10 on vault. Meet 8 - California (Feb. 25)

UCLA hit 24-for-24 and recorded its third-highest score of the season, posting a 197.775, but was unable to overcome No. 3 California's program-record 198.400. The Bruins recorded a season-best 49.575 on uneven bars to trim Cal's lead to three-tenths at the halfway mark, but the Bears earned their second-highest team totals ever on both floor and beam to keep the Bruins at bay. The Bruin leadoff performers were exceptional, as junior Emily Lee scored career-highs of 9.95 on beam and 9.9 on vault and floor. Senior Chae Campbell kicked off UCLA's bars rotation with a career-high 9.95 and received a 10 from one of the judges. Campbell also tied her career-best on beam with a 9.925.

UCLA's 49.4 scores on uneven bars and balance beam proved to be the difference, as the Bruins defeated No. 24 Stanford, 197.175-196.725, on March 1. The Bruins took the lead from the start and never relinquished it after scoring 49.4 on bars to Stanford's 49.025 on vault in rotation one. The Cardinal stayed within 0.325 going into the final rotation, but their 49.275 on floor was no match for the Bruins' 49.4 on beam, as UCLA hit all six routines for 9.825 or higher, led by Emma Malabuyo's anchor score of 9.925. Chae Campbell took first place on vault with a 9.9, Nya Reed won floor with a 9.925, and Selena Harris and Frida Esparza tied for first on bars with scores of 9.9.

Meet 11 - Clemson (Mar. 16)

UCLA recorded its third-highest score of all-time in a 198.550-196.825 victory over Clemson on Senior Day March 16. The Bruins scored three perfect 10s – two by sophomore Selena Harris, on vault and uneven bars, and one by senior Chae Campbell on floor exercise to close meet. Harris won the all-around with a career-high 39.900 and received five scores of 10.0 out of a possible eight from the judges. Her vault 10 was her third this season and fourth of her career, and her bars 10 was the first of her career. Campbell's floor 10 came in her first time back in the floor lineup since Jan. 27 and was the third 10 of her career and first since March 12, 2022. UCLA got stronger and stronger as the meet went on, starting off with a 49.475 on vault before recording season-highs on bars (49.525), beam (49.675, fourth-highest score in school history) and floor (49.775, fifth-highest score in school history).

Meet 12 - at Pac-12 Championships (Mar. 23)

Selena Harris tied the Pac-12 Championships all-around record with a 39.825 to capture the final Pac-12 all-around title and also added individual titles on vault and bars to lead the Bruins to a 197.875 final score and second-place finish. Utah won the Pac-12 team title with a 198.000. California was third with a 197.325, and Stanford finished fourth with a 197.175. The Bruins started the meet with a strong 49.475 on balance beam and then grabbed a three-tenths of a point lead at the halfway mark thanks to a 49.625 on floor. Harris' 9.975 led the Bruins on vault, but their 49.375 was dwarfed by Utah's 49.700 on floor that moved the Utes ahead by .025. In the final rotation, UCLA finished up on uneven bars, while Utah ended on vault. The Bruins scored 49.400, with Harris scoring 9.950, Katelyn Rosen contributing a 9.900 and Margzetta Frazier adding a 9.875, but it was not enough to catch Utah, who closed with a 49.500 on vault, thanks to four scores of 9.9 or higher.

Meet 13 - NCAA Regional 2nd Round (Apr. 5)

The 2024 season came to an end for No. 11 seed UCLA after a third-place finish at the NCAA Regional Second Round. The Bruins recorded a 197.050 to finish behind first-place Denver (197.275) and second-place Arizona State (197.150), who each advanced to Sunday's Regional Final. The Bruins were in first place by a 0.325 margin after scoring 49.575 on the first event, floor, before their lead began to slowly diminish with each passing rotation. UCLA scored in the low 49s on vault (49.150) and uneven bars (49.075) before closing with a 49.250 on balance beam that was not enough to stay in the Top 2. Only two Bruins qualified to the NCAA Championships - Chae Campbell on floor and Selena Harris on beam.

After being voted the pre-season No. 1, UCLA watched as Georgia assumed the role of favorites during the regular season. But when it counted the most, the Bruins proved they were worthy of their early ranking by winning their first-ever NCAA Championship.

Before UCLA even began its competition at the Super Six Team Finals, the door had opened. As the Bruins were taking a first-rotation bye, Georgia was stumbling on beam, counting two falls to essentially take the Gym Dogs out of the running. The pressure then shifted to the Bruins, who would follow on the dreaded beam.

But the Bruins were undaunted by the pressure. Leadoff competitor Susie Erickson hit a career-high 9.85 to start the ball rolling. A fall in the third position put a scare into the Bruins, but they rallied to hit their routines - Leah Homma for a 9.8, Luisa Portocarrero for a 9.825, and Stella Umeh with a spectacular 9.925 - to take themselves safely past the most nerve-racking event in the competition with a score of 49.2.

UCLA entered its third event, vault, in third place behind Michigan and Arizona State. The Bruins improved their position with strong vaulting and moved into a tie with Michigan with one rotation remaining - UCLA on bars and Michigan on floor.

With Michigan faltering on floor, the Bruins needed a 49.25 to surpass ASU for the championship. Deborah Mink started with a 9.825. Kiralee Hayashi followed with a 9.85. Lena Degteva nailed a 9.875, and Umeh followed with a 9.925. Freshman Heidi Moneymaker needed just a 9.775 to clinch the championship and scored that and more with a 9.925. Homma's 9.95 to close the competition punctuated the evening for the Bruins, who totaled a season-high 197.15, three-tenths better than ASU. The championship was the first ever for UCLA and the first for any school outside of Utah, Georgia or Alabama.

It was a dream season for the 2000 UCLA Gymnastics Team. The Bruins started the season strong with school-record performances in the beginning of the year, and ended the season unstoppable as Pac-10, Regional and NCAA Champions.

UCLA's national championship run began in earnest at the NCAA Regional meet. After impressive performances on floor (49.55), vault (49.5) and bars (49.4), UCLA had already reached 148+ with just beam to go and looked well on its way to another regional championship in a runaway. It wasn't quite a runaway, as three Bruin falls on the beam made it interesting, but UCLA's lead was so large that it didn't matter. The Bruins placed first with a score of 197.025, .85 better than second-place Oregon State.

At the team preliminaries of the NCAA Championship, the Bruins were able to get back on their No. 1 nemesis right away, starting on the balance beam. UCLA conquered its demons, with all six gymnasts hitting their routines to give UCLA a 49.05 first-rotation score. From there, the Bruins cruised and ended up hitting 24 for 24 routines to take first place and easily qualify for the Super Six Team Finals.

UCLA received another unfavorable draw for the Super Six, starting on floor and ending on a bye after beam. But this time, the Bruins drew upon their experience at their Regional meet and performed like champions, taking the lead early and never relinquishing it.

The Bruins set the tone right away, scoring a 49.375 on floor behind a leadoff score of 9.85 from Malia Jones and a pair of 9.9s from Mohini Bhardwaj and Heidi Moneymaker. In first place after rotation one, the Bruins then moved to vault, where they scored four 9.9s (Kristin Parker, Lena Degteva, Bhardwaj and Moneymaker) to account for a 49.45 and a seven-tenths lead.

While the Bruins were on a bye in rotation three, Alabama closed to within four-tenths, and Nebraska pulled to within .425. Each subsequent Bruin routine would be critical. On bars, a 9.9 from Degteva and a 9.95 from Bhardwaj brought the Bruins a solid 49.35 score and kept their lead at seven-tenths ahead of Utah, but with the beam remaining.

As the leadoff performer, freshman Doni Thompson gave the Bruins just what they needed - a career-high 9.8. Parker followed with a 9.775, Jones recorded a 9.75, and Moneymaker provided a 9.85. After Degteva dismounted with a 9.825, UCLA knew it had done all it could do to win the title. Bhardwaj capped the meet with a 9.875 and gave UCLA a second consecutive 24 for 24 performance.

The Bruins spent the final rotation on a bye in the locker room and waited as the other schools tried to overtake their 197.3 final score. The closest competitors needed more than 49.725 (9.945 average) to tie. None of the teams came close, and UCLA won its second national title.

The expectations for the 2001 Bruins were sky-high. After all, the Bruins were the defending NCAA Champions and had what was generally considered the most talented team in the history of collegiate gymnastics. But it took more than just talent for UCLA to reach the top of the podium at the NCAA Championships. A strong team commitment, team chemistry, depth, resiliency and a lot of heart brought the Bruins their second consecutive national title.

The quest to repeat started off strongly after a 24-for-24 performance during the preliminary session. UCLA placed first in the afternoon session with a score of 197.625 to advance to the Super Six. Onnie Willis ended the afternoon as the all-around co-leader and saw her score stand during the evening session, making her UCLA's first-ever NCAA all-around champion.

With day one of the Championships over with, the Bruins went into the team finals wearing shirts that read "Win With Our Hearts", and they proceeded to do just that.

The Bruins showed their heart early in the competition. During the first rotation, a fall from the first competitor put the pressure on early, but the team responded with three consecutive scores of 9.9+ to end the floor rotation with a .275 lead over Georgia.

The Bruins increased their lead on vault to .35 after totaling 49.45, thanks to three scores of 9.9 or higher.

The lead evaporated to just one-tenth of a point when two of UCLA's final three competitors on bars made costly errors, and with the Bruins' final rotation being the dreaded balance beam, UCLA had to be flawless. And they were.

As home team Georgia scored a 49.5 on vault, the Bruins matched them score for score. In the leadoff position, Doni Thompson put the winning wheels in motion by starting the set with a career-high 9.9. A fall from UCLA's second competitor put the pressure on, but the Bruins responded and almost fed off the pressure.

Tousek followed with a career-high 9.95, Willis tied her career-high with a 9.9, and Maloney scored a 9.925 to set the stage for Bhardwaj. In familiar territory after having clinched the dual meet win against Georgia at home, Bhardwaj responded with a 9.9, well above the 9.75 she needed to move ahead of Georgia. The Bruins finished with a beam total of 49.575, the second-highest beam mark in school history, and an overall team total of 197.575, .175 ahead of Georgia.

In addition to the team and all-around titles, Tousek won the uneven bars title, and Bhardwaj capped her career by winning the floor exercise championship.

A year after a disappointing third-place finish at the NCAA Championships, UCLA reclaimed its status as the top program in the nation, winning the NCAA title for the third time in four years.

UCLA entered the NCAA Championships in Lincoln, Neb. as the favorite and got through stage one of the Championships by placing first at the preliminaries with a score of 196.95. The Bruins did have to count a fall on beam, leaving definite room for improvement in team finals.

The Bruins were a resilient bunch in team finals. On three of the four events, UCLA had an early fall but never let it faze them, stepping up under pressure to throw out that low score.

Competing in the favored Olympic order, UCLA's night got off to a slow start when the first vaulter fell. However, the rest of the team raised their game a notch and reeled off five straight dynamic vaults to close the set with a team total of 49.35.

UCLA suffered another fall on bars in its next rotation, but again, three straight scores of 9.9 or higher to close the set negated the fall and put the Bruins ahead by two-tenths after two events.

On beam, where UCLA had suffered two falls in prelims, Bruin head coach Valorie Kondos Field employed a brilliant strategic move, putting in the extremely consistent Onnie Willis as the leadoff competitor. In her first ever leadoff performance, Willis was not only steady but spectacular, scoring a 9.925 to set the table perfectly for her teammates. UCLA reeled off scores of 9.9, 9.825, 9.85, 9.95 and 9.9 to earn a final team score of 49.525 and a .475 lead over second-place Georgia.

Heading into the final rotation, UCLA held a three-tenths lead over Alabama and needed to score 48.85 on floor to overtake Georgia. Jeanette Antolin led off with a 9.85, and seniors Kristin Parker and Malia Jones capped off their careers with a 9.875 and 9.9, respectively. A fall by Kate Richardson put some pressure on the Bruins, but with Willis and Jamie Dantzscher on deck, there was little doubt they would respond like champions. Willis earned a 9.9, and Dantzscher clinched the victory by scoring a near-perfect 9.975, which gave UCLA a final total of 197.825, .55 higher than second-place Alabama.

As hosts of the NCAA Championships, the Bruins were looking for their fifth title but first on their home turf. The "Drive for Five" started in the preliminary session.

Typical of most of UCLA's past championship years, the Bruins started the meet with a fall on their first routine on vault. But in true UCLA fashion, the Bruins picked themselves up and followed through with stellar performances to discount the low score. UCLA pulled away on uneven bars, scoring a 49.65 after counting five scores of 9.875 or higher, including a 9.975 from Jamie Dantzscher, and finished the session in first place with a score of 197.675.

The Bruins started the Super Six Team Finals on floor, a less than desirable rotation order. For UCLA, however, that rotation order had seen them through NCAA titles in 2000 and 2001. The order proved to be good luck for the Bruins again, and they exceeded all expectations with a stunning record-breaking performance to keep the trophy in Westwood.

After an inconsistent regular season and a relatively shaky start to the post-season with a second-place showing at the Pac-10 Championships and a rocky final rotation at the Regionals, the Bruins picked the best time of the year to put in a near-perfect performance. They hit 24-for-24 routines, with 15 scores of 9.9 or higher and an NCAA Super Six record 198.125 final score.

UCLA started the meet with a 49.525 on floor to take a slight .75 lead over Georgia and extended the lead to .225 after scoring a 49.525 on vault for a two-round total of 99.1. The Bruins pounded out a 49.425 on bars for a three-round total of 148.525. Georgia kept the pressure on, staying .525 behind.

With the unenviable position of finishing the meet on a bye, the Bruins knew they had to score high on beam in rotation five before heading into the locker room. They did that and more, tallying a meet-high 49.6 and leaving it mathematically impossible for anyone to top their 198.125. Freshman Lori Winn kicked things off with a 9.875, and the Bruins never looked back. Christie Tedmon scored a 9.85, Jeanette Antolin and Kate Richardson stepped up with 9.95s, Yvonne Tousek scored a 9.9, and Kristen Maloney slammed the door shut with a 9.925.

"This championship is especially special," said UCLA head coach Valorie Kondos Field. "First of all, it wasn't easy this year. We had to come out and work hard all season."

"We may have lost meets early on, but we put our egos aside. We trained hard, and we eventually came out on top."

UCLA closed its near-perfect run in postseason competition with a dominating 24-for-24 performance at the NCAA Super Six Team Championships, winning its sixth NCAA title at the site of its first, Gainesville, FL. In the team finals, the Bruins hit every routine without any major mistakes and outscored their nearest competitor by nearly half a point, recording 197.725 to runner-up Oklahoma's 197.25.

The Bruins entered the Championships as the No. 1 seed after dominating performances at Pac-10s and Regionals. But going in as the favorite seemed to put a bit of extra weight on the team, who competed tight during its first two events at the NCAA Preliminaries. At the halfway mark, UCLA was tied for third but used meet-best scores of 49.375 on floor and 49.4 on vault to power ahead of the field in the final two rotations, finishing with a first-place mark of 196.875.

There was no tightness from the Bruins at the Super Six, where UCLA took the lead in rotation one and never relinquished it.

The Bruins got off to a great start on vault in rotation one, scoring 49.475 on the strength of career-highs from Monique De La Torre (9.85 leadoff score) and Brittani McCullough (9.95) and a 9.925 from Vanessa Zamarripa. A 49.325 on uneven bars helped to maintain UCLA's lead at the halfway mark, heading into beam, the team's nemesis earlier in the season. The Bruins showed how far they had come from the beginning of the year, hitting all six routines for scores of 9.8 or better. Leadoff competitor Anna Li started with a 9.875, followed by a 9.9 from Elyse Hopfner-Hibbs. Niki Tom delivered another strong routine with a 9.8, followed by a 9.85 from Aisha Gerber and a 9.9 from Zamarripa. Mizuki Sato closed the set with a 9.85, bringing the Bruins' beam score to 49.375 and their three-event total to 148.175, .275 ahead of Alabama and 49.1 points away from a sixth national title.

On floor exercise in the final rotation, Tauny Frattone led off with one of her best performances of the year, scoring 9.875. After a 9.725 from Tom, Zamarripa and Li each hit 9.9s, leaving it up to McCullough or Hopfner-Hibbs to score 9.7 or better to clinch the title. McCullough had the first attempt and clinched it with a career-high tying 9.925. Hopfner-Hibbs' 9.95 was just icing on the cake and helped bump the Bruins' final floor total to a season-high 49.55 and its team final score to 197.725.

The victories kept coming at Event Finals, where Zamarripa won the vault title and McCullough claimed the floor crown. Zamarripa averaged 9.925 on her two vaults, scoring 9.95 on a stuck Yurchenko layout full and 9.9 on a Yurchenko half on, front layout half, the most difficult vault done in the competition. McCullough earned a 10.0 from one of the six judges on her floor routine and finished with an average score of 9.9375, just above her career-high mark of 9.925.

In one of the greatest comebacks in the history of NCAA competition, UCLA turned in a performance for the ages at the NCAA Super Six Team Final, using a NCAA Championship and school record balance beam score of 49.750 to take the title in St. Louis. The championship was UCLA's seventh overall and first since 2010.

The odds of UCLA coming back from a 0.325 deficit at the halfway mark were slim. The Bruins had put up solid but not huge scores on their first two events and were wrapping up the meet on uneven bars and balance beam.

After an average vault rotation that saw no scores over 9.9 and a team total of 49.2250, something needed to change. The Bruins had a bye in the fourth rotation and went into the locker room in fourth place, 0.325 behind the leaders, two-time defending champion Oklahoma.

Spurred on by an inspiring locker room speech by Associate Head Coach Chris Waller, who reminded the Bruins that they've been training like champions all year and that they "don't quit under any circumstances", UCLA regrouped and went all out in the final two rotations.

On uneven bars, freshman Nia Dennis led off with a 9.8375. Senior JaNay Honest followed with a 9.9 and received a perfect 10 from one of the six judges, her first career perfect 10 score in her last-ever routine. After Anna Glenn's 9.850, Madison Kocian stepped up for just her third uneven bars routine of the year after undergoing labrum surgery in August. Kocian had some struggles in her semifinal performance, scoring 9.775, but in the team final, she scored a season-high 9.9375. Sixth-year senior Christine Peng-Peng Lee was next and was sheer perfection. After hitting her difficult set and sticking her double layout dismount, she was rewarded justly with a perfect 10. Kyla Ross wrapped up the rotation with what looked to be another perfect set with emphatically-held handstands. She earned one perfect 10 score and a final total of 9.95, giving the Bruins a team total of 49.6375, the second-highest bars total in NCAA Championship history.

UCLA had closed the gap in the fifth rotation and entered the final event in third place, 0.175 behind the first-place Sooners, who finished up on uneven bars while the Bruins were on balance beam. Oklahoma earned three 9.9+ scores on bars and finished with a score of 49.5375 for a final team total of 198.0375.

The Bruin beam team got off to a tremendous start with a 9.9375 leadoff score from Grace Glenn. Kocian ran into problems in the two spot with a fall and a score of 9.275, putting the pressure on everyone else to stay clean in order to drop that score. But rather than sinking under the pressure, the Bruins thrived. Brielle Nguyen, in her only routine of the night, followed Kocian's fall with a 9.875. Katelyn Ohashi, who had won a share of the floor exercise title the night before, answered with a 9.95. Ross built off that and contributed a 9.9875, earning four of six perfect scores.

It all came down to Lee in the final routine of the night. Although she and most of her teammates did not know at the time, Lee needed to score 9.975 on her final collegiate routine to clinch the victory. What came next was, simply-put, legendary.

Lee hit every element of her routine perfectly, and when she stuck her dismount, she permanently etched her name in Bruin lore. As her teammates celebrated a terrific closing performance, the individual scores came up and signaled a perfect 10 for Lee, her 10th career perfect 10 and her second perfect 20 meet. Then the scoreboard team results updated, showing the Bruins at the top with a final team total of 198.075, just 0.0375 ahead of Oklahoma, setting off a second wave of jubilant celebration. UCLA's NCAA Championship and school record total of 49.750 on the balance beam, of all events, earned the Bruins the title.

"I looked at the scoreboard, and I saw UCLA on top, and I am still in shock," Lee said after the meet. "My tears have not come out yet. I said they're still dancing and having a party in my eyeballs. They have not come out yet, but I'm still in shock about the whole thing. I'm shocked I'm here, shocked we have the trophy, and I couldn't have asked for a better way to end with this team. Personally, I love this team so much and it's been an incredible season."

"I've been doing this at UCLA for 35 years and I have said the last few months and have said repeatedly the last few weeks that in all of my time we've had tremendous teams and tremendous, not just athletes, but student-athletes and people," said UCLA head coach Valorie Kondos Field. "Which is the reason I feel I have the greatest job in the world. But this team truly is the easiest team that I've ever coached. And that is because this time last year we said if we need, if we want a different result we've got to do things differently and what started that was me and our coaching staff just getting real with them about getting physically fit as you individually can get as making choices outside of the gym, those of a champion. And on and on and they did it. They decided to do it at literally last April, and they've been consistent with it, and because of that my job has been so easy this year. This truly is a dream team."

The 2019 Regional Champions

UCLA has captured 50 national individual titles since 1980, including a record-tying 42 NCAA championships.

Sharon Shapiro won UCLA's first-ever national title and made history at the 1980 AIAW Championships by becoming the first collegiate woman to sweep all four events and the all-around. No gymnast has duplicated that feat since. Kim Hamilton became UCLA's first-ever NCAA champion when she took home the floor exercise crown, the first of an unprecedented three consecutive from 1987-1989. In 1998, Heidi Moneymaker became UCLA's first-ever NCAA bars champion, and in 2001, Onnie Willis was crowned all-around champion, the first for a Bruin at the NCAA Championships. Jamie Dantzscher in 2002 won three titles, becoming the first gymnast in seven years to win as many in one season. Tasha Schwikert became the first UCLA gymnast to win multiple NCAA all-around titles (in 2005 and 2008) and the first in NCAA history to win as both a freshman and a senior. Kyla Ross became the first Bruin and only the second NCAA gymnast ever to win all four individual event titles over her career (2009 vault, 2007 bars, 2007 beam, 2009 floor).

Sharon Shapiro (1980-82)
Hall of Fame Class of 1999

On Oct. 30, 1999, Sharon Shapiro became the first women's gymnastics Hall of Fame inductee. Shapiro enjoyed an illustrious and historic athletic career for the Bruins. She remains the only gymnast ever to capture national titles on all four events and the all-around in the same year, a feat she accomplished at the 1980 AIAW National Championships her freshman season.

In 1981, Shapiro won the prestigious Broderick Award, given to the country's top female gymnast. As a sophomore that season, she defended her all-around title and also won the individual vault crown. The following year, she earned All-America honors in the all-around, vault and balance beam.

Shapiro has remained a key alumna, supporter, and ambassador for UCLA and her sport since her graduation.

Kim Hamilton (1987-90)
Hall of Fame Class of 2000

Kim (Hamilton) Anthony became UCLA's second inductee on Oct. 21, 2000. Like Shapiro, Hamilton also set a national record that has yet to be duplicated when she won three consecutive NCAA floor exercise titles from 1987-1989. She also won the NCAA vault title in 1989.

At the regional level, she won a school-record tying seven titles, including three each in the all-around and floor. She also won Pac-10 championships on bars and floor in both 1989 and 1988. In her career, she earned six All-America honors.

Anthony has also remained a major figure in the sport, having maintained a successful career as a sports commentator for ESPN and Fox Sports and as the host of the Miami TV show "County Connection." She is also an inspirational/motivational speaker, specializing in the area of Identity Attunement. She has worked with Athletes in Action for 20 years and is now the Executive Director of MomsHope, Inc. Anthony published a book, Unfavorable Odds, a memoir about her journey from a background filled with drugs and violence to a Hall of Fame career at UCLA.

Jill Andrews (1987-90)
Hall of Fame Class of 2001

Jill Andrews was inducted into in the Hall of Fame on Oct. 13, 2001. In 1990, Andrews became UCLA gymnastics' second Honda Award winner, capping off a career in which she won an NCAA title on vault in 1988 and on beam in 1989. Andrews earned eight first-team All-America honors in her career and was a two-time Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year.

Andrews excelled academically as one of UCLA's all-time great student-athletes. In 1990, she earned an NCAA post-graduate scholarship and was awarded the NCAA Top Six Award. In addition, she was a Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award winner. She was also honored by the Bruin gymnastics team with an award named after her, the annual Jill Andrews award for integrity.

Andrews, who graduated from the Northwestern University School of Law in 1994, was a Deputy City Attorney in San Francisco for six years, handling labor and employment litigation on behalf of the city and now works in legal counsel for AC Transit.

Leah Homma (1994-97)
Hall of Fame Class of 2008

Leah Homma was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Oct. 3, 2008. Homma competed for four years (1994-97), leading the Bruins to their first NCAA team title in 1997. Head Coach Valorie Kondos Field said Homma played "was a quiet leader who always led by example, was an unwavering hard worker, enthusiastic about her training, and always quick to help out her teammates in a quiet and unassuming manner." Homma finished fourth in the 1997 NCAA All-Around to help bring the title to Westwood.

Homma's other accomplishments included the 1994 and '97 Pac-10 all-around titles as well as the 1996 and '97 Pac-10 uneven bar crowns. She was twice named Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year (1995 and '97) and was also an eight-time All-American. During her career, she set and reset UCLA records in the all-around and was the second UCLA gymnast to receive 10.0s in two different events. In 1997, Homma was named UCLA's All-University Female Athlete of the Year and was a Honda Award nominee. She also excelled in the classroom, earning Pac-10 All-Academic honors on three occasions

Prior to UCLA, she was a member of the Canadian National Team and the 1991 Canadian champion in the floor exercise. Homma left her eternal mark in gymnastics with three moves named after her in the international code of points: the Homma Flip on beam and the Homma Flairs on beam and floor.

Valorie Kondos Field (1983-2019)
Hall of Fame Class of 2010

Valorie Kondos Field became just the second head coach ever to be inducted while still coaching at UCLA, earning induction on October 1, 2010.

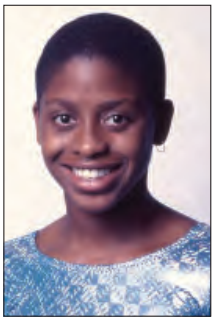
Upon arriving at UCLA in 1983 as a student coach, Valorie Kondos Field ascended the ranks as an assistant coach and choreographer, co-head coach (1991-94) and then sole head coach from 1995-2019. As head coach, Kondos Field positioned UCLA as the premier program in collegiate gymnastics by guiding it to an overall record of 843-215-5 with 15 Pac-12 titles, 20 Regional crowns and seven NCAA titles (1997, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2010 and 2018), as well as 32 NCAA individual titles during her tenure.

Kondos Field's 2018 squad won the NCAA title in dramatic comeback fashion, using a record-setting beam total of 49.750 in the final rotation to capture the victory. In 2010, UCLA won NCAA, Regional and Pac-10 championships and produced two NCAA individual champions. In 2003, the Bruins recorded an unprecedented five team scores of 198.0 or better en route to the NCAA title. The 2004 team set an NCAA Championship record by scoring 198.125 in the Super Six Team Finals. In 2001, UCLA gymnasts won the NCAA floor, uneven bars and all-around events, and every Bruin who competed earned All-America honors. That year, Kondos Field was voted the NACGC National Coach of the Year for the fourth time.

Kondos Field was honored in 2016 as the Pac-12 Gymnastics Coach of the Century, and in 2019, she received the UCLA Professional Achievement award for her superior achievements in the field.

Stella Umeh (1995-98)
Hall of Fame Class of 2012

An Oct. 12, 2012 inductee, Stella Umeh was a key member of UCLA's first NCAA Championship team in 1997. A 10-time All-American, Umeh captured the 1995 and 1998 NCAA floor exercise titles and was dominant at the 1995 Pac-10 Championships, winning the all-around, uneven bars, balance beam and floor exercise titles. In 1998, she captured her second Pac-10 individual all-around title, along with individual titles in floor and beam.



During her career, Umeh was a member of Pac-10 Championship teams in 1995 and 1997, was named the 1998 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and earned a total of seven All-Pac-10 honors and 10 All-America honors.

Prior to arriving at UCLA, she competed for Canada at the 1992 Olympic Games and at the World Championships from 1991-93. In 1992, she qualified for event finals at the World Championships on both vault (8th place) and beam (5th place), and in 1993, she was 15th in the all-around and eighth on floor. At the national level, she was a two-time Canadian vault champion. After graduation, Umeh performed for five years with Cirque du Soleil.

Mohini Bhardwaj (1998-2001)
Hall of Fame Class of 2013

Mohini Bhardwaj became the second gymnast in as many years to be inducted on Oct. 12, 2013. Bhardwaj won two NCAA team and two NCAA individual titles from 1998-2001 and finished her career as an 11-time All-American and 2001 Honda Award winner.

Bhardwaj set numerous scoring records at UCLA, including scoring the second-highest all-around total in NCAA history, 39.975, in 2001. She led UCLA to NCAA team titles in 2000 and 2001 and won the uneven bars in 2000 and floor exercise in 2001. Along with winning the Honda Award in 2001, she was also the Pac-10 and West Region Gymnast of the Year and the AAI Award-winner as the nation's top senior gymnast.

Bhardwaj continued her gymnastics career after graduation, winning the 2001 U.S. National Championship on vault and helping the U.S. win a bronze medal at the 2001 World Championships. In 2004, she earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team, where she served as team captain and led the U.S. to a silver medal. She also qualified for event finals on floor exercise, where she placed sixth. Bhardwaj is now the co-owner and club director at OOA Gymnastics in Bend, Oregon and began competitive weightlifting in 2018.

Onnie Willis (2000-03)
Hall of Fame Class of 2014

Onnie Willis received gymnastics' third-straight induction when she joined the class of 2014 on Oct. 10, 2014. Willis was a superstar on the competition floor and in the classroom.

During her four years at UCLA, she won three NCAA team championships (2000, 2001, 2003), three Pac-10 team titles (2001-03) and four NCAA Regional team titles. In 2001, she became UCLA's first-ever NCAA all-around champion, and as a senior in 2003 won the Honda Award as the best collegiate gymnast in the nation. The 2003 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year held the school record for NCAA All-America honors with 16 and has a share of the school record on vault and floor, having scored a pair of perfect 10s on each event.

Academically, she received the 2003 NCAA Top VIII Award as well as a NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship, and she earned Scholastic All-American honors and CoSIDA Academic All-District acclaim three times. Willis went on to earn a Ph.D in Developmental Psychology at NYU.

Jamie Dantzscher (2001-04)
Hall of Fame Class of 2016

Jamie Dantzscher was inducted into UCLA Athletics' Hall of Fame on Sept. 30, 2016. Dantzscher, an Olympic bronze medalist in 2000, cemented herself in Bruin lore the very first time she chalked up for a routine, scoring a perfect 10 on uneven bars in her collegiate debut. She is believed to be the first NCAA gymnast ever to score a perfect 10 on her first routine, and she went on to earn a school-record 28 10.0s in her career, including a national record seven in a row on floor exercise in 2002.

Dantzscher led UCLA to three NCAA team titles (2001, 2003 and 2004) and won four NCAA individual titles of her own, including the 2002 all-around, vault and floor exercise crowns, and the 2003 uneven bars title. She also won the Pac-10 bars and floor titles in 2002 and the floor title in 2001 and was the 2002 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and a three-time Pac-10 All-Academic honoree. The 15-time All-American and 2004 AAI Award winner was named to the Pac-12 All-Century Team in the all-around and floor exercise.

Kristen Maloney (2001-05)
Hall of Fame Class of 2017

Kristen Maloney's legacy with UCLA Gymnastics can be summed up in the team award that was named after her - the Kristen Maloney Heart of a Champion Award. The 2000 Olympic bronze medalist fought through multiple surgeries and a nearly career-ending bone infection to become a five-time NCAA champion and nine-time All-American.

Maloney helped lead UCLA to the 2001 NCAA title as a freshman but was forced to sit out both the 2002 and 2003 seasons due to complications from the surgeries. She returned in 2004 to help the Bruins win another NCAA team title in record-breaking fashion, and in 2005 she was the Honda Award winner, as well as the National, West Region and Pac-12 Gymnast of the Year. She won three events and the all-around at the 2005 Pac-12 Championships and finished her career by winning the vault and beam titles at the NCAA Championships.

Tasha Schwikert (2005-08)
Hall of Fame Class of 2020

Pac-12 Gymnast of the Century Tasha Schwikert made history as UCLA's first two-time NCAA all-around champion, bookending her career with wins as a freshman in 2005 and as a senior in 2008. She also added the NCAA uneven bars title in 2008.

A 12-time All-American, Schwikert won six Pac-10 titles in her career, including a near-sweep in 2007 with the all-around, vault, balance beam and floor exercise championships. She also won the Pac-10 all-around and uneven bars titles in 2005 and earned Pac-10 Freshman of the Year honors. In 2007, she was awarded Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year. Schwikert totaled four perfect 10s in her career, two each on uneven bars and floor exercise.

Prior to arriving at UCLA, Schwikert helped lead the U.S. to a bronze medal at the 2000 Olympics and to a gold medal at the 2003 World Championships. She was a two-time U.S. national all-around champion and was inducted into the USA Gymnastics Hall of Fame in 2012.

Kate Richardson (2003-06)
Hall of Fame Class of 2021

Canadian standout Kate Richardson came to UCLA two years after her first Olympic Games and made history after her sophomore season in 2004 by becoming the first-ever Bruin gymnast to make an Olympic team while competing for UCLA. Richardson also became the first Canadian woman ever to qualify for event finals on floor exercise, where she placed seventh.

As a Bruin gymnast, Richardson won two NCAA team titles in 2003 and 2004 and three NCAA individual titles, capturing the 2003 uneven bars and balance beam titles and the 2006 floor crown. She won a multitude of honors at UCLA, including 13 All-America awards, 14 All-Pac-10 awards, and three Academic All-America honors. She was named the 2003 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year, 2006 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and a 2006 NCAA Today's Top VIII Award-winner.

She scored nine perfect 10s in her career, including 10.0s on floor to win the 2003 and 2004 Pac-10 Championships. She also won the 2003 Pac-10 all-around title with a score of 39.825, a Pac-10 record that held for 16 years. Richardson was selected to the Pac-12 All-Century Team for floor exercise.

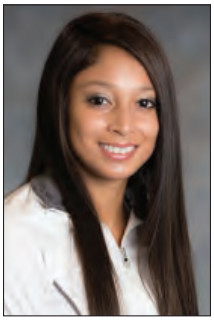
After graduating from UCLA, Richardson earned a master's degree in physical therapy from the University of British Columbia.

Heidi Moneymaker (1996-99)
Hall of Fame Class of 2023

Eleven-time All-American Heidi Moneymaker was a key member of UCLA Gymnastics' first two NCAA Championship teams in 1997 and 2000 and won two individual titles of her own, becoming the Bruins' first-ever NCAA uneven bars champion in 1998 and winning vault in 1999.

She made history in 1999 when she became the first-ever Bruin to earn the maximum five first-team All-America honors in a single year. Following that season, she competed for the U.S. at the World University Games, earning Top 8 finishes on bars and beam, and at the USA Championships. As a senior in 2000, she was named the Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and scored a pair of perfect 10s on vault. Moneymaker, who was named to the Pac-12 Team of the Century for vault, parlayed her gymnastics into a long-standing career as one of the leading stuntwomen in Hollywood.

Vanessa Zamarripa (2009-13)
Hall of Fame Class of 2024



Two-time NCAA champion Vanessa Zamarripa finished her UCLA career with 19 All-America honors, second-most in UCLA history. She also scored nine perfect 10s on vault in her career. As a freshman, she became just the sixth UCLA gymnast ever to earn the maximum five All-America honors in one season. The following year, she recorded the highest all-around score in the NCAA team final, leading the Bruins to the national championship. She won the NCAA vault title that year as well. Zamarripa won a total of six Pac-12 titles, including three vault titles and the 2010 all-around crown, and was selected the 2010 and 2013 Pac-12 Gymnast of the Year. During her senior season, she was named the NACGC/W Division I National Gymnast of the Year and the AAI Award-winner as the top senior in the nation. Zamarripa made an elite run in 2010 and finished eighth in the all-around and second on vault at the USA Championships and was named to the U.S. National Team.

Pauley Pavilion presented by Wescom

Home to Bruin athletic teams since 1965, Pauley Pavilion presented by Wescom is regarded as one of the finest all-around collegiate facilities in the nation and has been the site of numerous illustrious events, from NCAA Championships, Olympic gymnastics, presidential debates to award shows.

In 1984, the eyes of the world watched as Peter Vidmar, Mitch Gaylord and Tim Daggett led the USA men's gymnastics team to its first ever gold medal. On the women's side, Mary Lou Retton became the first American woman to win all-around gold.

In addition, Pauley Pavilion has served as the site for numerous NCAA events as well as concerts, weddings and the 1988 Presidential Debate between George Bush and Michael Dukakis. In 1994, Pauley Pavilion hosted the 75th Anniversary Convocation celebrating UCLA's years of academic achievement in which the keynote speaker was President Bill Clinton.

Pauley Pavilion is home to the UCLA Gymnastics team and was the site of the 1984, 1998, 2004 and 2013 NCAA Women's Gymnastics Championships. In 2004, UCLA made history in its home arena by winning the national title in Pauley Pavilion with a Championship record score. The UCLA men's gymnastics team won both of their NCAA titles in Pauley Pavilion in 1984 and 1987.

The arena underwent a multi-million dollar renovation at the top of the decade and reopened in November 2012.

John Wooden Center

One of the most attractive buildings on the UCLA campus is the John Wooden Center, a 136,000 square foot recreation complex, named after the legendary UCLA basketball coach.

The building serves students, faculty and staff and houses UCLA Gymnastics' practice facility, Yates Gym. For the 2012 season, while Pauley Pavilion was undergoing a multi-million dollar renovation, the John Wooden Center hosted UCLA home events for the gymnastics, women's basketball and men's and women's volleyball teams.

Inside the building are nine racquetball courts, two squash courts, a rock-climbing wall, a strength and conditioning room, a basketball gymnasium with three regulation courts and seating for 2,000 people, a volleyball and badminton gymnasium, three dance studios, a gymnastics training center, a matted room for Judo and Karate classes, locker room and saunas, and numerous meeting rooms.

Martin Jarmond

Director of Athletics
5th Year at UCLA
UNC-Wilmington '01

Martin Jarmond, a nationally recognized leader in college athletics, has built an impressive track record of competitive excellence, innovative strategy and student athlete success. A two-time recipient of Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 Award with over 21 years in sports administration spanning three conferences, Jarmond has guided UCLA to new heights through his culture of an E.L.I.T.E. mindset – Energy, Leadership, Integrity, Toughness and Excellence.

Jarmond's results-driven strategies combined with a relentless work ethic to elevate UCLA Athletics has helped to create an exceptional experience for student-athletes and fans alike. Over Jarmond's first four years in Westwood, UCLA has won five NCAA championships in the sports of men's water polo (2020), women's soccer (2022), men's volleyball (2023, 2024) and women's water polo (2024). UCLA teams have also totaled 17 conference championships under his watch.

In the 2023-24 school year alone, UCLA had five teams competing on the final day for an NCAA Championship, with victories in men's volleyball and women's water polo in an eight-day span in May. The Bruins finished the year ranked in the Top 10 of the Learfield Director's Cup for the first time since 2018-19. The 2023-24 Bruins were big winners in the classroom as well, with all teams posting a 3.0 or higher GPA in the Spring 2024 quarter for the first time ever. Additionally, the overall student-athlete GPA after the Spring 2024 quarter was a 3.355.

In June of 2022, Jarmond worked closely with campus leadership while playing a critical role in UCLA Athletics applying and being accepted for future membership in the Big Ten Conference. The Bruins begin their historic first season in the Big Ten Conference on August 2, 2024. He also negotiated a new multimedia rights deal with JMI Sports that will run through 2035.

Jarmond was hired on May 19, 2020 as UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics, becoming the ninth athletic director in school history. He made an immediate impact on the Bruins, jumpstarting the Voting Matters Initiative, the first of its kind in the country which assisted student-athletes in discovering the tools needed to exact meaningful change through civic duty. Jarmond engineered a partnership between UCLA and Nike/Jordan Brand, becoming only the fifth Jordan brand school in the nation and the first partnership with Nike in UCLA history. The six-year agreement between UCLA and Nike provides for 22 of the 25 UCLA varsity sports with Nike apparel, while football, men's basketball and women's basketball don Jordan Brand. Jarmond exhibits a strong commitment to mental health awareness, and his emphasis on diversity and inclusion was recognized in a 2021 SBJ award for being a national leader in diversity and inclusive hiring. He was the Pac-12 Conference representative to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for 2021-22 and serves on the Geffen Academy and McLendon Foundation Boards.

Through Jarmond's instrumental leadership, UCLA Athletics has positioned itself at the forefront of a rapidly-changing collegiate athletics landscape. In the burgeoning area of Name, Image and Likeness (NIL), Jarmond and UCLA Athletics launched "Westwood Ascent," a comprehensive NIL program that supports UCLA's student-athletes, helping them build their personal brands and maximize their NIL opportunities. In addition, the "Westwood Exchange" was established as a free business registry designed for companies, donors, fans and alumni that want to connect directly with UCLA's student-athletes interested in capitalizing on their NIL. In the Fall of 2024, UCLA Athletics' official NIL collective was restructured under the Champion of Westwood umbrella to streamline NIL opportunities for UCLA student-athletes.

Extensive work by Jarmond and his staff throughout the COVID-19 pandemic ensured that all Bruin teams could compete safely during the 2020-21 academic year, Jarmond's first at UCLA. Bruin teams won four conference titles that year and the men's water polo program won its 12th national championship in the spring of 2021. The men's basketball team embarked on a remarkable journey, advancing from the First Four to the 2021 NCAA Final Four, UCLA's first national semifinal appearance since 2008. These athletic achievements were balanced by record numbers of student-athletes earning spots on the conference all-academic squads, with 49 individuals earning a perfect 4.0 GPA for the Winter Quarter, and 131 student-athletes earning their UCLA degrees. For the first time ever, the Bruins produced multiple winners of the NCAA Elite 90 Award. Four student-athletes were recognized by CoSIDA as Academic All-Americans.

Jarmond came to UCLA from Boston College, where he began a three-year tenure in 2017, becoming the youngest athletic director of any Power Five institution. He previously served as deputy director of athletics at Ohio State, moving up the ranks after arriving as an associate athletic director for development in 2009. As Ohio State Athletics' chief advancement officer, Jarmond helped raise more than $120 million between 2010-2012.

Jarmond was also an assistant athletic director for development for seven years at Michigan State, where he served on the athletic director's executive leadership team. He was a key member of the $1.2 billion "Campaign for MSU" development team and a liaison between Michigan State's university development and alumni association leadership. Jarmond led the efforts to implement Scholarship Seating in football and Courtside seating in men's basketball.

A native of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Jarmond, 43, earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. A two-year captain of the men's basketball team, he led his team to the program's first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 2000 and earned Colonial Athletic Association All-Academic honors in 2001. He holds both a M.B.A. and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University. Jarmond is married to Dr. Jessica Jarmond, a dentist. They have three daughters: Scarlett, Savannah and Serena.

Deputy Athletics Director/Chief Administrative Officer/SWA
18th Year at UCLA
UC Irvine '96

In her role, Dr. Rivera directly supervises Women's Gymnastics, Softball, administrative areas and leads department efforts, especially in the areas of internal operations, Title IX, women in sport, governance and legislation, department meetings, campus partnerships, and performance evaluation and program assessment. As a member of the Executive Team reporting directly to the Director of Athletics, she serves in a leadership role for coaches and staff, and works towards establishing department goals and policies that align with University values.

Additionally, Dr. Rivera collaborates with University officials to provide guidance and direction to coaches and staff in order to enhance the growth and development of student-athletes on and off the field. In the face of changing NCAA legislation, she also works to develop strategic and innovative programs that benefit the department and are executed in a consistent, efficient and professional manner throughout the support services areas. Her role also requires her to exercise broad discretionary authority to solve problems in assigned areas of responsibility, including working closely with the Chief Financial Officer to ensure the department is consistently providing a quality student-athlete experience and that the principles of equity, diversity and inclusion are embedded in all UCLA varsity programs.

Prior to her current role, Dr. Rivera was the Associate Athletic Director responsible for the academic and student support services provided to Bruin student-athletes. This included academic counseling, academic mentoring, peer learning, student services and student-athlete development programming. She also had direct oversight of the academic eligibility certification process and the requirements associated with the NCAA Academic Progress Rate and Graduation Success Rate.

Dr. Rivera joined the Bruins after spending four years as the Associate Director and Eligibility Coordinator for the Student-Athlete Academic Services Office at USC, where she also served as the Academic Counselor to the football, men's basketball, women's soccer and women's volleyball teams. Prior to her stint at USC, Dr. Rivera was an Athletic Academic Counselor for the Student-Athlete Support Services Office at Ohio State University. During her time in Columbus, she was also a lecturer for the School of Physical Activity and Educational Services, as well as for the Athletics Department.

Dr. Rivera has served on various campus, conference and national committees, including serving on the NCAA Student-Athlete Experience Committee and Board of Directors for the Collegiate Women Sports Awards, which honors the nation's top NCAA women student-athletes recognizing superior athletic skills, leadership, academic excellence and eagerness to participate in community service. She is also a graduate of the Sport Management Institute (SMI) and LEAD1 Institute. In July 2021, she was honored as one of the 12 inaugural members of the LEAD1 Diversity Fellowship Program, a year-long opportunity for people of color and female administrators evaluated by a panel of experts as the industry's most ready to assume an athletics director position. To add, she was a recipient of the Next Level Female Executive Scholarship to attend the 2021 Collegiate Athletic Leadership Symposium (CALS).

Dr. Rivera is a member of the National Association of Academic and Student-Athlete Development Professionals (N4A) and Women Leaders in College Sports. In June 2007, she received the N4A Professional Promise Award presented to a member who has dedicated their energy to the Association and its members. She has also presented at several conferences in regards to factors related to academic achievement and student-athlete retention, as well as the use of technology for reporting and increasing academic accountability in athletics.

Dr. Rivera earned her Doctor of Philosophy degree in Higher Education Administration at Ohio State University in August 2004, where her dissertation focused on the identification of key factors student-athletes perceived to be important to the college student-athlete retention process. She also earned her Master's degree in Educational Policy from the University of Pennsylvania and her Bachelor's degree in Social Ecology at UC Irvine, where she was a varsity soccer student-athlete.

Chancellor
1st Year at UCLA

Dr. Julio Frenk became the seventh chancellor of UCLA on January 1, 2025. Frenk is an accomplished university administrator and leading global health researcher who has held positions in government and academia both in the U.S. and in Mexico.

Prior to UCLA, Frenk served as president of the University of Miami from 2015 to 2024, where he also held academic appointments in public health sciences, health sector management and policy, sociology and health studies. Before that, he served for almost seven years as dean of the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health and the T & G Angelopoulos Professor of Public Health and International Development.

Frenk was appointed secretary of health of Mexico in 2000, a position he held until 2006. In that role, he pursued an ambitious agenda to reform the nation's health system and introduced a program of comprehensive universal coverage called Seguro Popular, which expanded access to health care for more than 55 million previously uninsured persons. Frenk was also the founding director-general of the National Institute of Public Health in Mexico, one of the leading institutions of its kind in the developing world.

Frenk's research has centered on health systems, a field where he has made both theoretical and empirical contributions. He has examined the public policy implications of large, long-term shifts in the dominant patterns of health and disease as well as carried out work on health professions education and the medical labor market. Frenk holds a medical degree from the National University of Mexico, as well as a Master of Public Health and a joint Ph.D. in medical care organization and sociology from the University of Michigan.
